RE: FOIL request # 10256

Dear Mr. Walsh:

Please be advised that the material produced to you on September 16, 2019 was provided pursuant to Article 6 of the Public Officers Law is protected under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. sections 101, et seq. and that the City expressly reserves its rights in the material. Reproduction of the material; preparation of modifications or adaptations of the materials; or distribution of copies of the materials by sale, rental, lease or lending may violate the Copyright Act. Further, the material produced to you includes federally registered trademarks and service marks under the Lanham (or Trademark) Act, 15 USC sections 1051, et seq., which are owned exclusively by the City and those rights are expressly reserved as well.

Use of the City's registered trademarks in a false or misleading manner that would tend to cause confusion, mistake or deception or that falsely suggest that goods, services or materials are sponsored or endorsed by the City may violate the Lanham (or Trademark) Act. Production of these materials under Article 6 is not a license or permission to make unauthorized use of the enclosed material and the City expressly reserves all rights and remedies it may have under law.

Sincerely,

Alessandro G. Olivieri
